

HERBERT F. TIMMONS

Herbert F. Timmons, night round house foreman at the Soo Line, was called to the Great Beyond last Thursday. Mr. Timmons underwent an operation at the St. Andrews Hospital in Minneapolis on Monday of last week. For several days he seemed to be recovering and gaining in strength. On Wednesday, however, complications set in and his condition rapidly changed for the worse. Death came at 10:30 o'clock on Thursday morning.

Mr. Timmons had resided in Glenwood for nearly four years and had many friends in this community. It was with saddened hearts that the community received the word on Thursday that he had succumbed. He will be remembered in Glenwood as a citizen of the highest character who was always interested in the best interests of the community. His first interest was, naturally, his home and it was there that he exhibited those traits of character that won the respect and admiration of his friends. His children will always remember his kindly and wise counsel and guidance.

In his passing Glenwood has lost a valuable citizen, one whom it will be difficult to replace, and the Soo Line has lost a trustworthy employee.

For twenty-seven years Mr. Timmons has been in the employ of the Soo Line. He started working for the railroad in Minneapolis in 1908, working at the Shoreham shops. He won promotion until he was given the position of roundhouse foreman. It was in that capacity that he came to Glenwood about four years ago.

Herbert Fletcher Timmons was the son of Thomas H. and Mary Booth Timmons, and was born in Thomson, Georgia, on April 1, 1882. His father was a minister in the Methodist church. In his young manhood he attended Emory College and Georgia Tech University.

On April 29, 1912, he was united in marriage to Miss Viney Mae Andrew at Minneapolis. Two children were born to this union, Holmes F., age 21 and Jean Elizabeth, age 18. Besides Minneapolis and Glenwood, the family has resided in Gladstone, Mich., and Enderlin, N. D. The Timmons moved to Glenwood in July 1931. Surviving are his wife, two children, one sister, Mrs. J. C. Irving of Birmingham, Alabama, and two brothers, George V. Timmons of Carrollton, Alabama, and Thomas H. Timmons of Augusta, Georgia.

Mr. Timmons was a past master of Arcana Lodge No. 187 A. F. & A. M. Anchor Chapter R. A. N., of Minneapolis and Minnewaska Chapter O.E.S. at Glenwood. He was a member of the Trinity Methodist church in Minneapolis.

Funeral services were held in the Trinity church in Minneapolis on Saturday afternoon. Rev. G. E. Bailey, pastor of the church was in charge. Rev. Beadle of Glenwood led in prayer. The members of Arcana Lodge attended in a body and conducted the Masonic rites. Interment was in Sunset Memorial Park.
